President's Message

Warm greetings to all!

My name is Kimm Peters and I am your WSSA President for the 2018-2019 year. I am very excited to be in this position and am looking forward to my second term. As the winter holidays begin, we are busy planning for our 2019 conference. It will be held on June 6th and 7th in Wisconsin Dells at the Chula Vista Resort. 2018 brought many changes for all programs Statewide and so I chose the theme Building for the Future for our 82nd WSSA Annual Conference. This conference provides an excellent opportunity for attendees to continue to learn and network with others in your field from all over the State of Wisconsin. Our hope is that you leave the conference with new contacts and new information. Please do not hesitate to offer suggestions for trainings.

Bring the useful tips and breakthroughs you learn at WSSA back to the office!

On Thursday, June 6th, we will honor our "Foremen" (Past Presidents) during our luncheon and that evening we will be trying something new with an hour of networking and hors d'oeuvres. Friday, June, 7th, we will have our Awards Luncheon to recognize our "Construction Crew", the men and women across the State of Wisconsin who were nominated by their co-workers.

Kimm Peters
2018-2019 President
Wisconsin Social Services Association

Greetings from your President Elect...

Hello, my name is Nina Jones and I am the Safety Coordinator for the Kenosha County Department of Human Services. I am employed by Goodwill Industries of Southeastern Wisconsin and have been at the Kenosha County Department of Human Services for 15 years. Prior to that, I spent 11 years working as a Parent Educator for a different non-profit agency, also contracted by the Kenosha County Department of Human Services; that's a combined total of 26 years in the human/social service field. I have always enjoyed working with people and helping others, that's what social services is all about.

I have four adult children, three daughters and one son, and they are amazing. I have one grandchild, Ricco, and he has given me a new purpose in life. I enjoy reading, traveling, and spend most of my free time with my family.

I became involved with WSSA because it offers wonderful opportunities; to grow, learn, and interact with others in the social service field. I have always enjoyed learning new things and welcome the opportunity to brainstorm new and different ideas, I believe WSSA has all that and more to offer. I look forward to working with everyone and meeting people from other counties; the WSSA Conference offers so many opportunities to share and learn new methods, ideas, and more!

The Best Escape Anyone Can Have WSSA Annual Conference 2018 ~Recap~

The 81st Annual WSSA Training Institute and Conference held on June 13 & 14, 2018 was a great escape for members with it's celebration for all of those sharing their "eye of the storm talents" from around Wisconsin. The conference was held at Chula Vista Resort in Wisconsin Dells, Wisconsin. The conference began with a motivational keynote speaker, Annie Meehan, who presented "Be the Exception... 7 Steps to Transformation".

We had speakers from all different facets of our work, including FSET, social work, aging & disability, stress, child care, veterans and customer service. All of our speakers were excellent and the reviews of their workshops were outstanding. Your feedback is appreciated and utilized during future conference planning.

We had the opportunity to honor our Past Presidents at Wednesday's luncheon at the conference. We had a number of them in attendance and Chula Vista gave away a free night stay that was raffled off at lunch. Our theme night dinner was fun of course. We had a photo booth and members were dressed in their beach attire and ready to network.

On Thursday, we acknowledged those who had been nominated for their outstanding talents. They were chosen to receive WSSA awards and certainly deserved recognition for their contributions to the field of Human and Social Services. A huge congratulations to all the Award Winners! Another Congratulations goes out to Denise Whiting-Okari from Eae Claire and Reno Wright from Milwaukee! They are our drawing winners after completing the WSSA Evaluation Form.

WHY JOIN WSSA?

Why should I join WSSA, you ask? If you have been to a conference, your membership is paid for the following year, as the conference registration includes a year membership. However, how many renew their membership the following year? There are many reasons to continue and to have your co-workers and friends join.

WSSA has helped me in so many ways over the years. I have been a member for over 25 years - I really lost track of when I first joined. Some of the benefits include:

Professional development: going to WSSA meetings and trainings helped me in my job as I Received valuable information from meetings and from other workers in the same field.

Networking opportunities: I was able to, by going to WSSA meetings and workshops, meet others to share ideas, concerns and issues and solve problems.

Leadership: I believe this was one of the biggest advantages of being involved in WSSA. I gained confidence and leadership skills, on the district level as a committee member and officer as well as on the State level as a State officer.

Other benefits include better knowledge of social problems, and broader understanding of the social/human services field as a whole. Recognition is given to social/human services workers through the WSSA awards.

Besides the above reasons, of course are the friendships I have gained which means the most to me. I have met so many wonderful people from all over the state of Wisconsin - thanks to my involvement in WSSA.

So, continue your membership, Get Involved, and encourage your friends and co-workers to join!

You won't be sorry!

History of WSSA

The organization was established in 1937, known as the Wisconsin Association of County Pension Departments. In 1935 the State Public Welfare Department was established and each county set up departments, known as County Pension Departments, to administer the program. Troubles soon arose because of inexperience of agency workers. County welfare administrators met in January 1937 to discuss common problems, and the WACPD was formally organized, with 175 regular members. John H. Holtz, Rusk county, was the first president in 1937/38 and again in 1938/39.

In 1936, another group of people in Wisconsin who were administering direct relief, certifying federal relief program making placements in CCC camps and distributing surplus commodities was also having the same problems. These people formed the Wisconsin Public Welfare Association. In 1942 both associations merged to form the Wisconsin Public Welfare Association. Marvin McMahon, Buffalo County was elected the first President, with fifty-one counties represented.

In 1970 the county directors formed a Directors and Board Members Group and the WPWA lost many directors as members. January 1, 1976, the Wisconsin Public Welfare Association name was changed to the Wisconsin Social Services Association. Thomas Keith, Burnett County, was the last president of the old-named organization WPWA and the first president of the new WSSA, serving from July 1, 1975 to June, 1976.

Annual conventions (conferences) have been held every year with the exception of 1945 due to world war II. In 1948 Herbert Humphrey, then Mayor of Minneapolis and running for U.S. Senator, gave the main address. Wisconsin's governors often addressed conventions. The keynote speaker at the 1978 joint WSSA and American Public Welfare Association was Jesse Jackson. The 1953 conference held in Green Bay had 64 counties represented. The 1966 conference at Lake Delton, with Norman Whitford as president, had over 400 attendees, all 72 counties were members and there were 2,301 individual members. The 1975 conference held at the Madison Hilton, with Ed Paulson as president, had 800 attendees. The 1978 conference with Paul Green as president had over 400 attendees.

The first woman president of WPWA was Melinda Laumer, Marathon County in 1944. She served two consecutive years when no conference was held in 1945 during World War II due to gas and tire rationing. The first woman president of WSSA was Helen Johnson, Green Bay DFS, in 1978.

The president's gavel with the inscription "Presented to WPWA by L.J. Howman, Director of Winnebago Social Services in May 1960" was presented by the WSSA Historian Karen Eggleston, at the 1987 Past Presidents luncheon. The gavel has been passed on to the incoming president every year since then. The gavel of black walnut was made by L.J. Holman and his son.

The WSSA banner was first made in 1984 by Jane Ross (Mother of Kathi Kufahl, Brown County). The WSSA Journal, a publication on a specific program or idea, was first published in December 1982. The final issue of the Journal was published in Spring 2000. The WSSA newsletter UPDATE is a news publication with information for WSSA members. In the past it was sent three or four times per year by U.S. postal services and now sent via email and on the website.
