President's Message

Warm greetings to all!

My name is Kimm Peters and I am your WSSA President for the 2017-2018 year. I am very excited to be in this position and am looking forward to this term. As the winter holidays conclude, we are busy planning for our 2018 conference. It will be held on June 13th and 14th in Wisconsin Dells at the Chula Vista Resort. 2017 brought many changes for all programs Statewide and so I chose a B.E.A.C.H (Best Escape Anyone Can Have) theme for the Annual Conference. This conference provides an excellent opportunity for attendees to continue to learn and network with others in your field from all over the State of Wisconsin. Our hope is that you leave the conference with new contacts (friends) and new information.

Our organization is committed to offering broad range of training as we continue to work in an ever changing environment. Please do not hesitate to offer suggestions for trainings.

~ 2017 Annual Conference Recap ~

The 80th Annual WSSA Training Institute and Conference held on June 21 & 22, 2017 rocked with it's celebration for all of those sharing their "rock star talents" from around

Wisconsin. The conference was held at Great Wolf Lodge in Wisconsin Dells, Wisconsin. The conference began with a motivational keynote speaker Ann Kerian who presented "I Love My Job".

We had speakers from all different facets of our work, including W2, social work, aging & disability, stress, IM, case management , fraud and customer service. All of our speakers were excellent and the reviews of their workshops were excellent. Your feedback is appreciated and utilized during future conference planning.

We had the opportunity to honor our Past Presidents at Wednesday's luncheon at the conference. We had a number of them in attendance. Our theme night dinner was fun as usual. During dinner we had a photo booth. That made for a photogenic evening and we will hopefully be bringing the fun back to future conferences!

On Thursday, we acknowledged those who had been nominated for their outstanding "rock star talents". They were chosen to receive WSSA awards and certainly deserved recognition for their contributions to the field of Human and Social Services. A huge congratulations to all the Award Winners!

NOMINATE SOMEONE FOR AN AWARD!

It's time to start thinking about nominating someone you know for a WSSA award! The purpose of awards is to acknowledge and recognize individuals who exhibit leadership and have demonstrated outstanding performance in their position and have made an unique contribution in the social/human services field.

The WSSA awards available include the following: Distinguished Service, Excellence in Economic Support, Excellence in Social/Human Services, the Gayl Farris Outstanding Clerical, County Board member, Membership Liaison and Rookie of the Year. Nominees for Distinguished Service, Gayl Farris Outstanding Clerical and Rookie of the Year must be a WSSA member. Awards will be presented at the Annual Conference.

WSSA members can be nominated at any time during the year for Honorary Life Membership. Individuals who have been of significant benefit to the Association and the field of human services who may be pending loss of their eligibility for regular membership due to retirement and have had a consecutive membership for ten years and are current members are eligible for Honorary Life membership. A plaque is presented to the Honorary Life member at the WSSA Annual Conference Awards Lunch.

Per an Executive Committee decision, an individual does not have to be a WSSA member to nominate someone. The person nominated does not have to be a WSSA member for the following awards: Excellence in Social/Human Services, Excellence in Economic Support, and County Board.

In addition, WSSA offers up to two scholarships of $500 each to WSSA members who are pursuing their career and education in the social/human services field and meet the criteria. A conference grant (for a total of $500) is also available to WSSA members who attend a State conference which is related to human/social services programs and relevant to the applicant's current job duties.

The Friend of WSSA award was established in 2000 to recognize an agency or organization that has demonstrated exceptional support for the goals and objectives of WSSA. It acknowledges contributions made by a county, agency or organization through participation, lending of its members of time or other resources to sustain the ideals of WSSA.

Criteria for awards and scholarships as well as nomination forms can be found on the WSSA website: www.wssa.ws For more information, please contact an Executive Committee member.

History of WSSA

The organization was established in 1937, known as the Wisconsin Association of County Pension Departments. In 1935 the State Public Welfare Department was established and each county set up departments, known as County Pension Departments, to administer the program. Troubles soon arose because of inexperience of agency workers. County welfare administrators met in January 1937 to discuss common problems, and the WACPD was formally organized, with 175 regular members. John H. Holtz, Rusk county, was the first president in 1937/38 and again in 1938/39.

In 1936, another group of people in Wisconsin who were administering direct relief, certifying federal relief program making placements in CCC camps and distributing surplus commodities was also having the same problems. These people formed the Wisconsin Public Welfare Association. In 1942 both associations merged to form the Wisconsin Public Welfare Association. Marvin McMahon, Buffalo County was elected the first President, with fifty-one counties represented.

In 1970 the county directors formed a Directors and Board Members Group and the WPWA lost many directors as members. January 1, 1976, the Wisconsin Public Welfare Association name was changed to the Wisconsin Social Services Association. Thomas Keith, Burnett County, was the last president of the old-named organization WPWA and the first president of the new WSSA, serving from July 1, 1975 to June, 1976.

Annual conventions (conferences) have been held every year with the exception of 1945 due to world war II. In 1948 Herbert Humphrey, then Mayor of Minneapolis and running for U.S. Senator, gave the main address. Wisconsin's governors often addressed conventions. The keynote speaker at the 1978 joint WSSA and American Public Welfare Association was Jesse Jackson. The 1953 conference held in Green Bay had 64 counties represented. The 1966 conference at Lake Delton, with Norman Whitford as president, had over 400 attendees, all 72 counties were members and there were 2,301 individual members. The 1975 conference held at the Madison Hilton, with Ed Paulson as president, had 800 attendees. The 1978 conference with Paul Green as president had over 400 attendees.

The first woman president of WPWA was Melinda Laumer, Marathon County in 1944. She served two consecutive years when no conference was held in 1945 during World War II due to gas and tire rationing. The first woman president of WSSA was Helen Johnson, Green Bay DFS, in 1978.

The president's gavel with the inscription "Presented to WPWA by L.J. Howman, Director of Winnebago Social Services in May 1960" was presented by the WSSA Historian Karen Eggleston, at the 1987 Past Presidents luncheon. The gavel has been passed on to the incoming president every year since then. The gavel of black walnut was made by L.J. Holman and his son.

The WSSA banner was first made in 1984 by Jane Ross (Mother of Kathi Kufahl, Brown County). The WSSA Journal, a publication on a specific program or idea, was first published in December 1982. The final issue of the Journal was published in Spring 2000. The WSSA newsletter UPDATE is a news publication with information for WSSA members. In the past it was sent three or four times per year by U.S. postal services and now sent via email and on the website.
